

LINDA HAROOTYAN

Linda is from California and moved to Wilmington in 2017. She joined WIN last year. She has a degree in social work and was Deputy Executive Director of the Gerontological Society of America in DC for 36 years, where she designed and managed numerous grants. In Wilmington, she was on the Landfall Foundation Grants Committee and supports local nonprofits, such as Nourish NC, Cape Fear Literacy Council, StepUp Wilmington, among many others. She has a consulting business helping nonprofits with their grants. In her spare time, she is an artist. She is thrilled to join the WIN board and sees many opportunities to improve WIN's impact.
