

Leigh Johnson

Leigh joined WIN in 2012 and has been a Wilmington resident for 30 years. Leigh loves being both a professional fundraiser and a community leader. A couple of her favorite roles are with the Azalea Festival Tunes and Blooms Concert Series and WIN. She previously led the WHQR Community Advisory Board and served on the Board of Directors for the Cape Fear Literacy Council and the Association of Fundraising Professionals.

Her passion for health equity began with her career at Planned Parenthood in the early 2000s when she joined the local affiliate. Since then, Leigh continued her career in the nonprofit world for local and national organizations. In 2016, Leigh returned to her roots and joined the philanthropy team at Planned Parenthood South Atlantic.

She takes pride in her community and loves that she and her husband, Randall Johnson, have the privilege of raising their son in such an incredible place.

Leigh is a proud graduate of Hoggard High School, Cape Fear Community College, and a 2-time alum from UNCW with a BA in English Lit and Political Science and a Master's of Public Administration (MPA) in non-profit management.
