

DEBBIE MOTT

Debbie has lived in Wilmington since 2015, trading DC for a quieter beach life. She joined WIN in 2017. She spent her career in media, communications research, and consulting, working with professional membership organizations and universities on their integrated communications and marketing plans. In Wilmington, she joined the CAM Executive Mentor Program, provided fundraising and marketing expertise to GLOW, and served on the Landfall Foundation Grants Committee. For the past two years, she served on WIN's Grant Committee. Her interests lie in increasing membership and learning more about the nonprofit community to increase impact.
